My package arrived damaged on delivery, do I have to accept it?

If upon delivery of your package you find that it is severely damaged, please do not accept it and have it returned to our warehouse. Failure to make a claim or contact us will not affect your statutory warranty rights. However, if you report the damage to us, you help us immensely to be able to assert our own claims against the delivery partner or the transport insurer.

If you have received a damaged package, please check if the products inside are also damaged. If this is the case, proceed with a claim (ideally within 4 days) and send us a photo

- of the damaged product
- the package
- the inside of the parcel including wrapping / protection material
- and the address label.

Thank you very much, we will take care of your request as soon as possible.

What can I do if my package is returned to sender?

If you see in the tracking that your package has been returned to sender, it is possible that your address is incorrect or incomplete. Please contact us via our helpdesk by selecting "Where is my order?". Please provide us with your order number and your complete address (the name of the recipient must be identical to the name on the mailbox) - we will then arrange a new shipment or refund.

My package has not arrived, what now?

It can happen that the parcel gets lost. In this case it's possible that the shipping service provider has handed it over to a neighbour, a family member, or to the nearest parcel store, therefore we kindly ask you to check. If you still can't find your package, contact us within 14 days after the delivery date via chat or our help desk under "Where is my order?" and we will help you.
